CHINESE SOLDIERS SELLING LIVES DEARLY IN DESPERATE STRUGGLE ALONG RAILWAY

JAPANESE PUSH MEETS WITH STERN RESISTANCE

Refused To Withdraw: Three Generals Killed

Hankow, March 20.
IN A DESPERATE ATTEMPT to stem the Japanese advance down the Tsinpu Railway, Chinese forces have begun two flank attacks from the east and west on either side of the line.

The Japanese spearhead has now reached Hanchung, only 30 miles from Hsuehchow.

THE FORCE OPERATING on the railway is advancing in two columns under the command of Generals Pang Sing-hsun and Chang Tze-chung. It is claimed that these two columns have effected a junction with Chuhsien, in south-eastern Shantung, while the vanguards have reached the outskirts of Yishui on the Yili River.

At the same time two Chinese forces under Generals Sun Tung-hsuan and Tsao Fu-lin have been ordered to leave their positions on the west of the railway and advance to Tsinling.

Although the Chinese were driven back by the Japanese advance to Hsuehchow they are fighting to the bitter end and selling every inch of the ground dearly. The generals are refusing to give the order to withdraw till the last moment.

It is learned that in the fighting outside the city walls of Tenghsien, a division commander, General Wang Ming-chang was killed with the Chief-of-Staff, General Chao Hsiang-hsien.

Since then, another division commander, General Chen-li, has been wounded in the leg. Brigadier Commander Lui Li-nan has been wounded in the head, and the Chief-of-Staff, General Chao Mo-tao, has been killed.—(Reuter).

JAPANESE SURROUNDED

Shan, March 20.

The Japanese troops at Chungyang, a town south of Lishih, 25 miles from the Shansi-Shensi border, have been surrounded by Chinese forces, whilst those on both sides of the highway running from Chungyang to Lishih have retired to the latter town.

During a recent engagement east of Lishih 300 of a Japanese unit of 500 men were slain in action and three field pieces and 300 rifles were seized by the Chinese.—(Central News).

FUKIEN TOWN SHELLED

Foochow, March 20.

Three Japanese warships off the coast of Putien, south of Foochow, laid a heavy barrage on the main land on March 18 in an attempt to cover the landing of Japanese marines.

Chinese defenders, assisted by militia, kept up a stiff resistance, succeeding in repulsing the invaders.

The Chinese defenders in Putien are now heavily reinforced.

The Japanese aircraft-carrier off the coast of Changlo, southeast of here, has left.—(Central News).

Sun Fo Secures Million Rouble Loan For China

Hankow, March 20.

According to a Chinese paper, a telegram from Paris has been received here saying that a large loan agreement with Russia was concluded by Dr. Sun Fo on behalf of the Chinese Government when he visited Moscow. The paper says that the loan amounts to 100 million roubles.

Dr. Sun Fo is further reported to be in negotiation for the conclusion of two loan agreements with France, and although no details have been made public, it is believed, the paper adds, that these agreements refer to the planned purchases of munitions.

In conclusion the paper states that Dr. Sun Fo will shortly visit Czechoslovakia where he will visit the ammunition works. He is expected to return to China in the near future.—(Reuter).

DEFENDERS HARD-PRESSED IN COLONY'S MOCK WAR BOTH SIDES SUFFER IN WEEK-END OPERATIONS

FIVE DROWNED WHEN JUNKS CAPSIZE

Yesterday's Tragedy Near Castle Peak

Five persons were drowned when two Hong Kong registered junks capsized yesterday about noon near Lung Ku Tan, between Castle Peak and Deep Bay.

The boats were proceeding smoothly on their way to Deep Bay when a sudden squall sprang up. Despite all efforts of the crews to steer them through, the boats were unable to stand up to the strong wind and quickly turned turtle.

Five members of the crew of Junk No. HD2242 were drowned. Their bodies were later recovered by Police launch No. 3.

The wife and the son of the junkmaster are also missing. All on board the second junk, No. HD1872, managed to swim ashore.

Impending Attacks Confidently Awaited

More detailed information of the fighting that has taken place in the week-end in connection with the Combined Operations was released in an official communique last night.

The Pacific Fleet at first displayed but little initiative, limiting its activities to sporadic bombardment of our coast defences. About 3 p.m. on March 19 the enemy landed a force estimated at two infantry battalions west of Yuen Long, while a further force of some three battalions was reported to be crossing the frontier and moving in the direction of Fanling. Almost at the same time a convoy of enemy ships was reported lying out at sea to the south-east of the mainland.

Our covering forces were fully deployed in advance of the main defensive position by 2 p.m. but later their flank and rear line was threatened by the advance of enemy forces which had landed on the north shore of Tolo Harbour and orders were therefore issued for the immediate withdrawal.

For some time the situation of our troops in this area was precarious since messages telling them of their danger and ordering their withdrawal failed to reach their destination in time.

A Staff Officer who proceeded in person to warn the troops failed to reach more than rear elements and narrowly escaped capture himself. It later transpired that as a result not only had our troops suffered heavily but nearly half the enemy force was cut off and are presumably now prisoners. (Continued on Page 16)

War Threat Averted Ultimatum To Lithuania Accepted

Warsaw, March 20.

The threat of a war between Lithuania and Poland has been averted with the acceptance by the Lithuanian Government of the ultimatum delivered by Warsaw on Thursday night.

The Lithuanian reply was handed today to the Polish Minister in the capital by the Lithuanian Minister. It was drafted after an emergency meeting of the Lithuanian Cabinet during which five out of eight ministers said they favoured the acceptance of the terms of the ultimatum which, first of all, demanded the restoration of diplomatic relations between the two countries; secondly, rejected Lithuania's proposal for the formation of a mixed commission to settle all outstanding differences; and thirdly, demanded the appointment of Lithuanian representatives to Warsaw before March 31.—(Reuter).

JUDGMENT FOR BROKER IN CLAIM FOR DAMAGES

Breach Of Contract On Sale Of Old Telephone Shares

LENGTHY REVIEW OF CASE BY HIS HONOUR THE CHIEF JUSTICE

At the Supreme Court on Saturday His Honour the Chief Justice, Sir Athol Mac Gregor, delivered judgment in the case in which Mr. F. U. Silva claimed $1535 damages for breach of a contract from Mr. J. J. Gutierrez.

Plaintiff was represented by Hon. Mr. Leo D'Almada e Castro, Jr., instructed by Mr. D. H. Blake, of Messrs. Wilkinson and Grist, whilst Mr. H. G. Macnamara, instructed by Mr. F. X. D'Almada, Jr., of Messrs. D'Almada and Mason, appeared for the defendant.

It was alleged that plaintiff suffered damages through defendant's refusal to accept and pay for 500 (Old) Telephone Shares, which he had contracted on March 31, 1937 and delivered on June 22. He bought the shares for defendant at $32.40 each, and on the latter's non-acceptance, he had to sell them at $29.75, thus incurring a loss which formed the claim.

The claim was for damages for breach of contract, and although the sum involved was small, the principle was an interesting one and possibly of some importance with regard to share transactions generally.

Delivering judgment his Lordship said:—

On 31st March 1937 the Defendant contracted to purchase from the Plaintiff firm who are members of The Hong Kong Sharebrokers Association 500 Old Hong Kong Telephone Company Shares at the price $32.40 per share. The contract note was in the usual printed form, subject to the Rules Regulations and Customs of the Hong Kong Sharebrokers Association. Typed at the foot of the contract note appear the words "Scrip numbers to follow." It is agreed that on 8th April the Plaintiff communicated to the Defendant the Scrip Number 186 and the duplicate contract note is endorsed 186 under the initials of Mr. Silva of the Plaintiff firm. The contract was for delivery on the June Settlement day, 22nd June. The Plaintiff firm duly purchased, on account of the Defendant, 500 Old Telephone Shares from another firm of stockbrokers, and were by them informed that the scrip number of the shares was "186," information which they immediately communicated to the Defendant.

REFUSED ACCEPTANCE

The selling firm of stockbrokers were in error in communicating that number, as they had already on 23rd March appropriated these shares to the order of another client, whose account was guaranteed by the Defendant. That firm therefore, on 23rd June, made available to the Plaintiff firm another block of Old Telephone Shares Scrip No. 6818, which were duly tendered to the Defendant, but he refused to accept them, claiming that his contract was to receive shares of the scrip No. 186 and no others.

It is further agreed that in the event of the Plaintiff firm succeeding in the measure of damages is $1535.00.

The sale contract, as I have already stated, was subject to the rules of the Sharebrokers Association, and it is therefore necessary to consider one of their Rules which is in the following terms:—

"As from 1st April 1935 no member shall be permitted to transact business for forward delivery except in the case of stocks in such companies whose registers are not in this Colony unless particulars as to the distinctive number of the shares bought and/or sold are inserted in the contracts, such numbers must always be supplied by the seller to the buyer of the shares within two working days of the transaction, and shares delivered in fulfilment of any forward contracts must bear the identical numbers as those stated in the contracts."

Any infringement of the above rule will be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of the Articles of Association.

FORWARD CONTRACTS

The aforesaid rule however does not apply to forward contracts made before 1st April 1935 in which no share numbers are given, and to any subsequent set-off against such contracts, provided the transactions are proved to be bona fides when such proof is required by the Committee.

In case of any dispute arising with regard to the by-law requiring the insertion of numbers in the Contract Notes or in case of force majeure, such as the disappearance from the Colony or death of the seller, the Committee, on being informed, will investigate the case and if satisfied of the physical impossibility of delivery of the same shares as declared in the Contract Notes, will issue a certificate relieving the Member selling the shares from the obligation of delivering identically the same shares, and such certificate will be valid and applicable to all transaction arising from the original one."

TO PREVENT SPECULATION

It is common ground that the object of the Rule is to prevent speculative short selling. The first question which I have to decide is whether the terms of this rule are binding only on members of the Sharebrokers' Association, or whether equally bind members of the public who have dealings with such members. The Hong Kong Sharebrokers' Association was registered as an Association under the Companies Ordinance 1911 and the relevant provisions of their New Articles of Association are as follows:—

44. The Committee shall also have power from time to time not inconsistent or contrary to these Articles to make alter or repeal such Rules and bye-laws as they may think expedient to govern the transaction of all business in stock, shares, bonds, debentures or other securities by members of the Association for the regulation of the Association and the opening and shutting thereof and for the conduct of persons transacting business therein, and generally for the good order and government of members and the regulation of the methods in which the business of members is to be conducted.

45. All rules and bye-laws so long as they shall be in force shall be binding on all the members of the Association, and the same shall be posted up in the Association's premises.

67. Whenever it shall have come to the notice of the Committee:—(vi) that any member has...violated...the rules of the Association the Committee shall investigate the matter at an Extraordinary meeting of the Committee, and...may either expel such member from the Association or suspend him for such period as may be deemed expedient, or take such other disciplinary action as the Committee may think proper.

A DOMESTIC RULE

From a perusal of these Articles and the rule in question it is clear that the jurisdiction exercisable by the Association is domestic only, limited to its members who by their membership here agree to and subject themselves to their provisions, and cannot extend to affect members of the public dealing with members of the public dealing with members of the Association. Indeed on any other construction the concluding paragraph of the Rule would be meaningless. If, in such a case as the present one shares had been appropriated with a scrip number other than that originally communicated to the customer, and before due date for delivery these shares had appreciated in value, could it be argued that the broker, relying on the obligation imposed by the Rule, could repudiate the contract and resell the shares at a higher price? I fear that even Mr. Macnamara's ingenuity would be overtaxed were he called upon to draw a Statement of Defence in such circumstances.

Mr. Macnamara has invoked the analogy of Leeman's Act (the Banking Companies (Shares) Act, 1887) which provides that a contract for the sale or transfer of shares or stock in any joint stock banking company must set forth in writing the numbers of the shares or stock on the register of the company. I cannot imagine that in so doing Mr. Macnamara was inviting me to hold that the Rules of the Association had the force of an Act of Parliament. So far Leeman's Act, in common with the Association's rule is a laudable attempt to control speculative gaming transactions I am with Mr. Macnamara, but no further. Fortunately the question for decision is not without direct authority. In Levitt and another v. Hamblett (1901) 2 K.B. 53 the Defendant employed a broker to purchase for him certain shares on the Stock Exchange and afterwards directed him to carry over the shares to the next account. The broker in accordance with the regulations of the Stock Exchange, purchased the shares in his own name from the Plaintiff who were jobbers on the Stock Exchange, and afterwards carried over with them the same shares. The Defendant's name was not disclosed. Before the next setting day the broker was declared a defaulter on the Stock Exchange and in accordance with the rules of that body his contract with the Plaintiff was closed at a price fixed by the official assignee of the Stock Exchange. The Plaintiff having ascertained that the broker was acting for the Defendants in this transaction, called upon him to take up the shares. He declined to accept any responsibility for them; and the Plaintiff, on the setting day, tendered the shares to the Defendant, and, on his refusing to accept them, sold them for the best price then obtainable. In an action to recover from the Defendant the difference between the price at which the shares had been carried over and that at which they had been sold, the Court of Appeal held, affirming the judgment of Mathew J. that the defendant was liable as principal on the contract made for him by his broker with the Plaintiff and that the privy of contract between the Plaintiff and the defendant was not affected by the Rules of the Stock Exchange, as to the compulsory closing of the transactions of a defaulting broker.

ANOTHER CASE CITED

Ponsolle v. Webber (1908) 1 Ch. 254 is another case in point. Brokers on the Stock Exchange acting for an undisclosed outside principal pledged share certificates with a jobber on the exchange as a security for a loan to be repaid the next setting day. The outside principal failed to put the jobbers in funds to repay the loan, whereby the brokers made default and hampered and the jobber, under the rules of the Stock Exchange, was obliged to take over the shares at the official price of the day. Afterwards the shares rose in the market, and the jobber sold them at a profit, and was then sued by the outside principal for an account of the proceeds of sale on the footing that he was only mortgagee of the shares. Neville J. held that the relation of mortgagor and mortgagee existed between the outside principal and the jobber; that the Stock Exchange rules did not apply as between them, and that the jobber was bound to account.

From my finding on the scope of the rule, it follows that the defendant cannot rely on its provisions for success in resisting this claim. I turn now to the wider issue, whether the plaintiffs in the circumstances have fulfilled their contract with the defendant.

POSITION NOT ALTERED.

On 31st March, the date of the contract, the defendant's only desire was to be put in possession, by settlement day, of 500 Old Telephone Shares at the agreed price. So far as, on that date, he was concerned, the scrip number was quite immaterial for he could neither choose his number nor decline to accept shares bearing the scrip number communicated to him.

When on 8th April the incorrect scrip number was communicated to the defendant was the position in any way altered? I do not think that it was, for to hold otherwise would be to allow that the contract was for the sale of specific goods by description.

"If the circumstances of the case were that the description given to specific goods was essential to their identity as the subject matter of the contract, in other words that the buyer contracted for them as described, so that the falsity of the description made the goods substantially different things from those that were described, so as to constitute a failure of consideration, the sale was by description." That is the classic definition of Blackburn J. in Kennedy v. Panama Mail Co. (1887) L.R.2 Q.B. 580. Such a test can have no relevancy in circumstances such as these which I am considering. One Old Telephone Share is in every way and for all purposes the same as another. They are indistinguishable one from another except by numbers and a variation in number imports no substantial difference in the nature or value, the numbers being in no sense descriptions, but at most mere indicia of title.

VALUE NOT AFFECTED

Mr. Macnamara relies on two cases Morre & Co. Ltd. v. Landauer & Co. (1921) 1 K.B. 73 affirmed on appeal (1921) 2 K.B. 518, and Arcois Ltd. v. E.A. Romansen & Son (1933) A.C. 470. Both of these cases, however, are easily distinguishable.

HITLER TALKS ABOUT AUSTRIAN COUP

All Germany To Take Part In Plebiscite Next Month

Berlin, March 18.

Herr Adolf Hitler, German Chancellor, made his speech in the Reichstag this evening in connection with the Austrian coup, when he announced that the whole of Germany would vote in the Austrian plebiscite on April 10, and that a new Reichstag would be elected the same day.

Herr Hitler declared that the creation of an Austrian rump State was the rape of 6,500,000 people, the tragedy of which was that Austria was a structure which could not live. Where Germans were concerned, the mere hope of returning home was stamped as a crime, but right must stay right, even in the case of Germans. Who can wonder that these people took their rights in their own hands?

Nations are the creation of God, but the League of Nations was a very doubtful construction of human weakness, covetousness and self-interest. Long after the League has disappeared, nations will continue to exist. The League of Nations could only have sense if it adapted its morals to a higher morality.

Germany was again a world power, but which world-power could look on calmly when millions of its people at its frontier were ill-treated? There are times when a proud nation cannot look on any further.

CONTINUAL UPHEAVALS

Referring to the Berchtesgaden talks, Herr Hitler said that he told Dr. von Schuschnigg, then the Austrian Chancellor, that in view of Germany's new power, conditions in Austria would lead to continual revolutionary upheavals, and the time would come when a big nation could no longer look on. He reminded Dr. von Schuschnigg that this was his last attempt. He was determined to defend the rights of his compatriots in Austria with those means which he had always used when justice was denied.

If Dr. von Schuschnigg had not changed matters, he would have offered Dr. von Schuschnigg his hand; but the Austrian rejected it, and there could be no more doubts that Dr. von Schuschnigg was determined to break the agreement. The first rumours of the plebiscite appeared to them incredible.

"A GREAT SWINDLE"

Herr Hitler said the elections in Austria would have been a great swindle, because Dr. von Schuschnigg knew full well that he had only a minority of the population to back him up. "If I had not acted immediately Austria might have had the same fate as Spain. I prevented a terrible nightmare. I pursued a great aim and led my home country to Germany."

"Dr. Schuschnigg had not believed I would intervene, but he and his supporters can thank God that I did, because my prompt action saved the lives of tens of thousands of Austrians. Behind my decision stands the German army."

UNINTELLIGIBLE AND INSULTING

"It is regrettable that the democracies failed to understand the development, and their reaction is unintelligible and insulting."

Hitler said that he assured Signor Mussolini, just as in the case of France, so also in the case of Italy, that Germany would regard their frontiers as inviolable. "I believe that in these great hours, in which the eternal dream of the German people was fulfilled, that not one individual part of our people should be called upon to confirm that unity."

"The Austrian people, when they vote in the plebiscite on April 10 will not be alone. Germany will accompany them, and the whole German nation on April 10 will line up to make its sacred confession. Not 6,500,000 people, but 75,000,000 will be asked to vote."

Herr Hitler concluded his speech by asking for another four years in which to complete the Austro-German union.

A later message says that Herr Hitler has dissolved the Reichstag. —(Reuters).

GERMANY WILL TAKE PART

Berlin, March 19.

Chancellor Hitler announced in the course of his Reichstag speech yesterday evening that the whole of Germany will take part in the Austrian plebiscite to be held on April 10. He also announced that the whole of Germany will be summoned to poll on the same date to elect a new Reichstag. —(Transocean).

ASSASSINATED DR. DOLFFUSS

Paris, March 20.

The newspaper Intransigent published yesterday a dispatch from Vienna which alleged that Major Emilie Fey, former Vice-Chancellor of Austria who committed suicide a few days ago left a testament in which he confessed to have been the murderer of Dr. Engelbert Dollfuss, Austrian Chancellor.

This confession, writes Intransigent, serves to throw light on the reason why Major Fey committed suicide. —(Transocean).

LITHUANIA ACCEPTS POLISH DEMANDS

Serious Complications Now Averted

Warsaw, March 19.

Acceptance by Lithuania of the Polish ultimatum was officially announced here at noon today.

In its reply, which was transmitted by the Lithuanian Minister in Tallinn (capital of Estonia) to the Polish Minister in the Estonian capital, the Lithuanian Government declares its readiness to establish normal neighbourly relations with Poland, which have not existed since the annexation of Vilna by Poland in 1920.

BRITISH SATISFACTION

London, March 19.

Acceptance of the Polish ultimatum by Lithuania is welcomed with marked satisfaction in British political circles, all the more so as press reports had given rise to fear of serious complications.

According to the Evening News, settlement of the conflict and establishment of normal relations between Lithuania and Poland is due to the alleged decision of the Soviet Government not to intervene in the matter. —(Transocean).

FOREIGN MINISTER RESIGNS

Kaunas, March 19.

The Lithuanian diet, which had been summoned originally for 4 o'clock this afternoon, assembled, contrary to expectations, this morning behind closed doors. In order to take cognisance of the Lithuanian Government's reply to the Polish ultimatum.

It is announced that the Lithuanian Foreign Minister, S. Lozoraitis, has tendered his resignation, and that a new Cabinet will be formed. —(Transocean).

LEADERS LEAVE VIENNA

Vienna, March 19.

Statthalter Dr. Seyss-Inquart and all members of the Austrian Provincial Government left here yesterday afternoon by air for Berlin where they are due to arrive at four o'clock in time to attend the Reichstag session. —(Transocean).

DISCUSSION WITH GERMANY IMPRACTICAL

Lord Privy Seal's Strong Words

London, March 19.

Lord De La Warr, Lord Privy Seal, presiding at the annual conference of the National Labour Party, in referring to the international outlook said that, after Austria, no one felt that the policy of continued discussion with Germany was practical politics for the time being.

Every rule of conduct and of humanity had been defied and trampled on by the iron heel of a regime that saw no argument but that of force.

The Minister added that the speech of the Foreign Secretary in the House of Lords made it clear that he had been driven to the conclusion that the cause of peace today demanded firmness as well as appeasement. —(British Wireless).

CHARGE AGAINST SOVIET ENVOY TO AMERICA

Moscow, March 19.

The Soviet Ambassador in Washington, M. Troianovsky, has been recalled to Moscow by the Russian Foreign Office in order to "report" on his activities, says an announcement.

It is unofficially learned that the Ambassador will probably be indicted on a charge of "sabotage." —(Transocean).

FRANCO-SOVIET DISCUSSIONS

Paris, March 19.

M. Paul Boncour, French Foreign Minister, had an interview yesterday with M. Surtiz, Soviet Ambassador in Paris. It is understood that the Soviet Ambassador handed to the French Minister the text of a declaration made by M. Litvinoff on Thursday.

M. Boncour is said to have informed the Soviet envoy that the French Government would consider the Russian suggestions for conference but that it would be first necessary to examine them in consultation with other governments concerned.

The Polish-Lithuanian dispute was also discussed and it is presumed here that the French Foreign Minister told the Soviet Ambassador that the French Government was attempting to persuade the Polish Government to seek a settlement by normal means and advised the Soviet Government to take a similar step in Kovno. —(Transocean).

LITHUANIA REPLIES

WILL NOT RENOUNCE VILNA CLAIM

Warsaw, March 19.

Lithuania's reply to the Polish ultimatum was communicated to the Polish Government before noon yesterday—more than 40 hours before the expiration of the time limit, according to a report which, however, lacks official confirmation.

In its reply the Lithuanian Government is said to have accepted the Polish demand for the resumption of normal diplomatic relations between the two countries but to have rejected the demand for recognition of the status quo. In other words Lithuania refuses to renounce its claim to Vilna.

According to various rumours circulating in Warsaw the sudden departure of Marshal Rydz Smigly for Vilna occurred as the result of the undisciplined behaviour of a group of Polish military leaders in the Vilna territory.

Marshal Rydz Smigly, it is alleged, intends at all costs to prevent an occurrence of any isolated action that might unintentionally worsen the situation as far as Poland is concerned.

A bank rush occurred in Warsaw yesterday and rapidly assumed such big dimensions that the police had to intervene. —(Transocean).

ACADEMY WINNERS TOGETHER

Spencer Tracy And Luise Rainer

One of the most impressive church ceremonies in the world was reproduced with every detail for a sequence in "Big City" the new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture which is showing today at the King's Theatre with Luise Rainer and Spencer Tracy co-starred.

This was the high mass of the oldest ecclesiastical music in existence.

The scene was filmed for the episode in which Luise Rainer, falsely accused of a crime and sought by the police, takes refuge in a Rumanian church in New York.

"Big City" is a dramatic story of a taxicab war in New York, with

MAGNIFICENT FILM FARE

"Come And Get It"

Samuel Goldwyn's magnificent film version of Edna Ferber's colourful novel of the lumber camps, "Come And Get It" bowed in at the Majestic Theatre last night and provided an audibly enthusiastic audience with a rousing entertainment.

An inspired cast, headed by Edward Arnold in the role of Barney Glasgow, the chore boy who became a lumber baron, brings Miss Ferber's vivid characters to life with uncanny accuracy and the film catches all the colour, the thrills, the danger and the fun of story.

Arnold gives what is unquestionably his best performance. As Barney, Joel McCrea is perfect as his son, Richard who wins the girl his father loves.

Others who shine in the perfect cast are Andrea Leeds, beautiful, dark-eyed Goldwyn discovery and Frank Shields, the handsome tennis star.

Our hat is off to Samuel Goldwyn for the lavish production, to Howard Hawks and William Wyler for their spirited direction, to Jules Furthman and Jane Murn for a brilliant script, to Omar Kiam for his costumes, to Richard Day for his sets and, of course, to every last member of the perfect cast.

CATHEDRAL WEDDING

Hart-Baker-Tollan

At St. John's Cathedral yesterday Miss Dorothy Christina Tollan was married to Mr. Norman Hart-Baker.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. Duncan Tollan and the late Mrs. Tollan and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Hart-Baker, of Shanghai.

Mrs. F. C. Cleme was Matron of Honour and Mr. F. C. Wood acted as best man.

The Rev. H. W. Baines officiated. Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Roof Garden of the Hong Kong Hotel.

The honeymoon is being spent at Repulse Bay Hotel.

FULL-LENGTH COLOUR CARTOON MASTERPIECE

The enormous success of "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" everywhere it has been shown since its release last month has fully justified the originality and daring of its creator, Walt Disney, that genius of the comic cartoon who has delighted millions, young and old, with his beloved Mickey Mouse and the brilliant Silly Symphonies.

Disney conceived the idea of making a full-length animated cartoon in colour more than four years ago, but his friends and even his own staff of artists and technicians were unanimously sceptical of the success of such a project.

But Disney, whose every hunch has turned out right, stuck to his guns and turned all his energies to the experiment.

GRIMM TALE

First of all he decided that he would make use of the familiar fairy tale of the Grimm Brothers. With a little cutting here and a little patching there, the tale had all the ingredients of a really exciting drama.

Then he proceeded to plan the colour work of the film. When you see the film, which is due to be shown here in about a month's time, you will be agreeably surprised to find that its beauty far transcends that of the Silly Symphonies.

SHADES OF EXPRESSION
The principal characters in the story are done in bolder tints to give them emphasis and relief. Then by tones and line, Disney deftly registers even the finest shades of expression in a way which even flesh-and-blood actors often fail to achieve.

It is not too much to say that each scene is an exquisite composition in itself and each frame of film could stand alone, comparable in its beauty to the finest canvas.

The central figure, of course, is Snow White. Disney has put body and soul into the creation of the character, and how well he has succeeded may be judged by the enthusiastic comments which every eminent film critic has lavished on the picture.

SEVEN JOLLY FELLOWS
One forgets that Snow White is a drawing and, as the story unfolds, becomes so absorbed in the part that a strong bond of sympathy binds one to the character. Her joys are your joys and her sorrows are your sorrows.

The Seven Dwarfs—Doc, Happy, Sleepy, Grumpy, Doxy, Sneezy and Bashful—are masterpieces of comedy and character delineation. Admirably conceived and marvellously executed, they are a tribute to Disney's deep understanding of human qualities.

Another point, and by no means the least, is the picture's excellence at musical score. Interweaving familiar old tunes with new ones composed by Disney's own musicians, the score adds immeasurably to the interpretation of every sequence of film.

EIGHT SONG HITS
Anyone who remembers—and which one of us does not?—"Who's Afraid of the Big, Bad Wolf?" and the other songs from the Silly Symphonies, which are as original as they are refreshing, will be glad to hear that there are no less than eight new tunes in "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs."

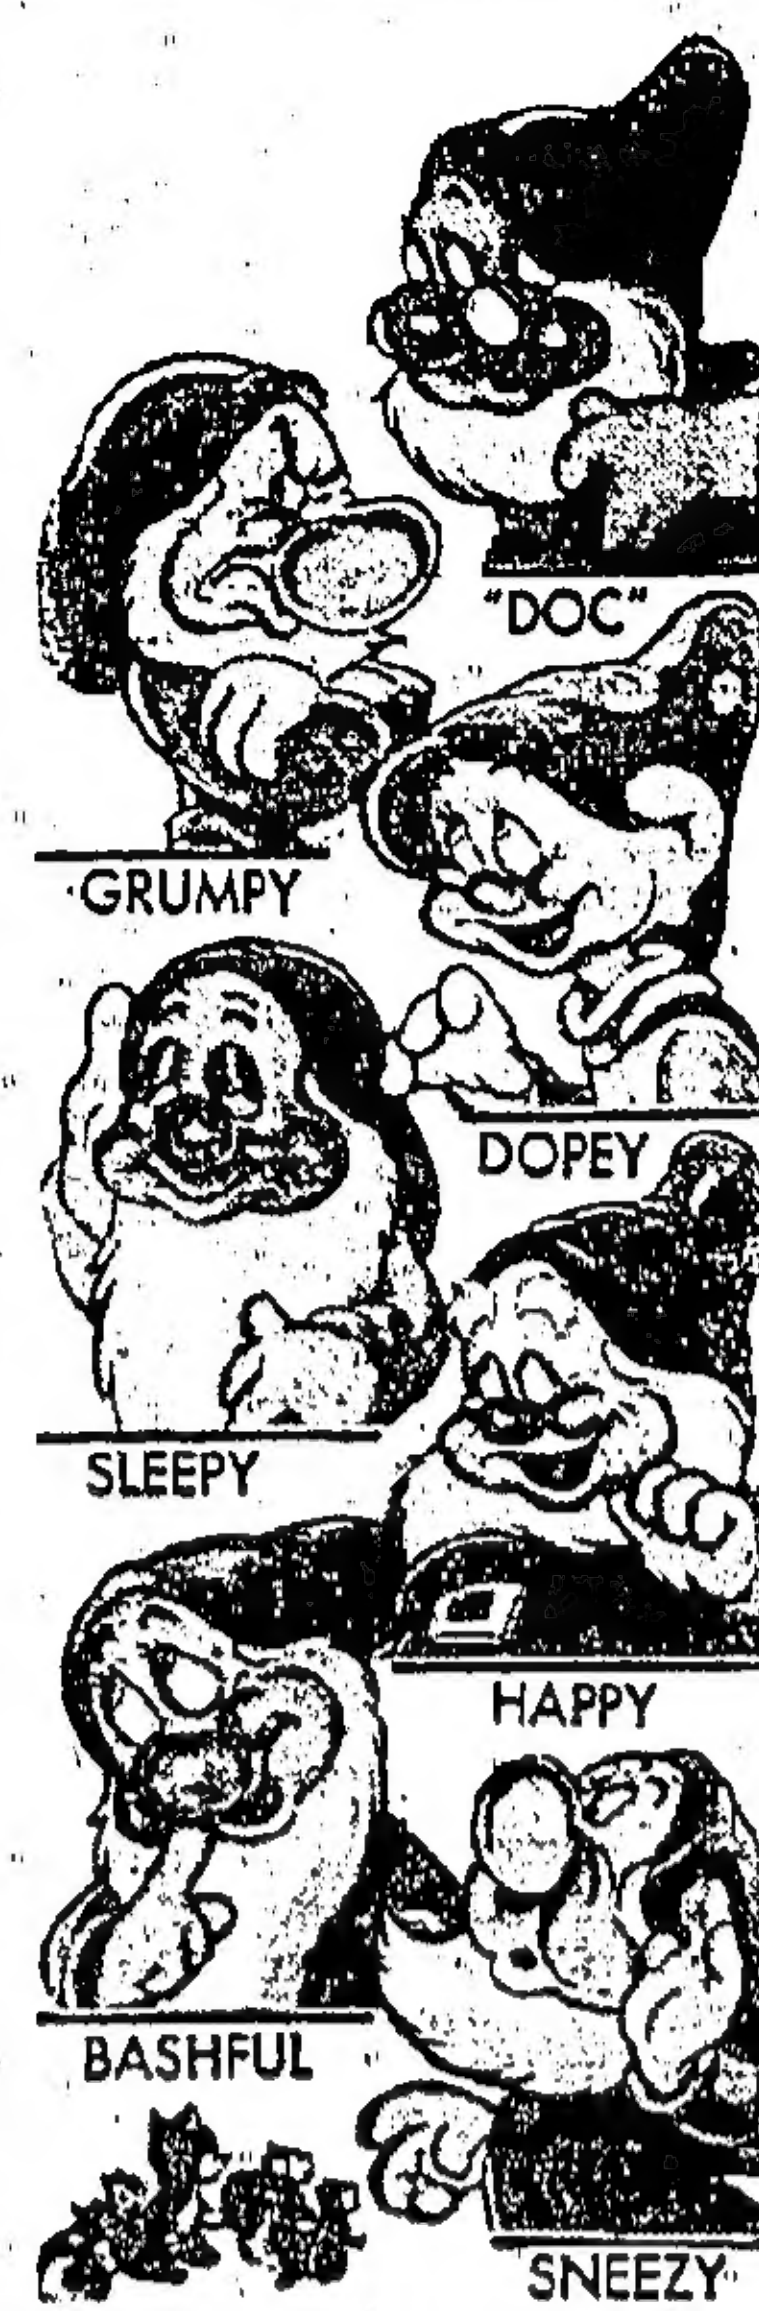

The picture took four years to produce and the cost amounts to something like $1,600,000 in American currency. Over 250,000 finished drawings were photographed. Considering that three or four pencil drawings were required before the finished drawing stage was reached, it can be seen that close to a million drawings in all were made.

DETAILS OF PRODUCTION
A staff of 570 artists and retouchers was responsible for all this work, not taking into account the scores of others actively engaged in recording, photographing, supplying music and sound effects.

An orchestra of 80 musicians furnished the background music, while many singers, some very well-known on the stage and on the air, were responsible for the songs. The dialogue, it is said, is spoken by some of the leading players of the stage and the screen.

All this gives only a very rough idea of the enormous amount of effort and organisation that was required for the making of the picture, which has been hailed in many quarters as the greatest advance in motion pictures since the advent of sound.

EVERY DAY'S A HOLIDAY

Mae West In Main Role

As a gag-tossing, heart-breaking New York belle of the nineties, Mae West is just as you like her in "Every Day's a Holiday," which has its run at the Queen's Theatre today.

From her hilarious meeting with her first horseless carriage on the Brooklyn Bridge, to the final scene in front of Madison Square Garden where she stages a political rally to stop all political rallies, she is the bold, swaggering, riotous character always associated with the name Mae West.

In the story, which she wrote herself, Mae is the toast of the Bowery whose shady business deals always keep her only two or three steps ahead of the police. Throughout the picture she is out of sympathy with the law and its servants. As she expresses it to the captain of detectives, Edmund Lowe, "You got me all wrong. I may crack a law now and then, but I never broke one."

The colourful types called for in the supporting cast are well filled by Charles Butterworth, Charles Winninger and Walter Catlett. In his able direction, A. Edward Sutherland has recreated perfectly the atmosphere of the New York of 1900.

ROYAL NAVY

Rear-Admiral J. C. Tovey, C.B., D.S.O., hoisted his flag in H.M.S. President at Blackfriars on March 5 on his appointment as Rear-Admiral Commanding the Mediterranean Fleet Destroyer Flotilla. He is due to leave London in the s.s. Strathnaver for Malta, arriving on April 3 to relieve Vice-Admiral J. F. Somerville, C.B., D.S.O.

AMONG THE BARONS OF THE BALTIC

Background Of Latest European Moves: Their Danger And Significance

NO SOONER HAS GERMANY "adopted" Austria than Poland has an affair with Lithuania. And the Baltic problem which is the question of the absorption of Lithuania comes to the fore again with all its significance, if not its dangers.

It is said that a rolling stone gathers no moss. But it is equally true that if a journalist the "stone" gathers a great deal of information.

AND THIS WAS INDEED SO in the year 1934, when I roamed over the width of Germany, and particularly in the Rhineland, through the Polish Corridor, inspected Danzig, relaxed in Königsberg long enough to send a rude postcard back to the Landrat of the German frontier town who had searched my "Opel", and then proceeded on over the bridge at Tilsit into Lithuania.

The contrast of coming into the much publicised Fort of Gdynia, Lithuania from East Prussia was as marked as when I emerged from the Gobi Desert into Siberia.

The bleakness of the countryside, the poverty of the population bespoke a country whose capital city, had been filched from it by one of its neighbours. It was many years since the Poles had occupied Vilna, the capital of Lithuania.

BY PERCY CHEN

PROBLEMS INVOLVED What are the problems involved? A poor state, Lithuania, but inhabited by a independent people. The Letts were among the first to gain their independence from the sovereign Russian Empire when the Tsars were deposed. What industry there was in the territory known as Lithuania was centred around Vilna. And this was lost when the city was lost.

As a result the Lithuanians since that time have not been on speaking terms with the Poles, and I believe have maintained no diplomatic relations.

Not only with Poland has Lithuania had its troubles. The question of Memel and the German minorities is also one which is burning. And with the growth of Nazi Germany the problem, while being less open, has been no less acute.

FUTURE DISCUSSED In Polish circles in the Baltic countries and in other European capitals where newspapermen and diplomats foregather, one often heard discussions concerning the future of Lithuania. Of its helplessness, its forlorn condition, and of its coast line.

Coupled with this, one heard discussed in German circles the question of the ultimate destiny of Danzig—of the Polish Corridor and

NO RIGHT TO BE IN CAR 30 SMALL-POX CASES HIDDEN

Detective Describes Arrest Of Loiterer

When Chan Shui-fan, charged with loitering and possession of instruments fit for an unlawful purpose, appeared on remand before Mr. R. Edwards at Central Magistrate's Court on Saturday, evidence was given by Det-Sergeant C. Dowman, who effected his arrest.

Sergeant Dowman said he was on duty in Connaught Road Central on March 18 when he saw defendant go up to car No. 3054, which was parked outside Cook's, and got into the driving seat. Witness crossed the road, towards the car, and defendant shifted into the other seat.

Witness asked him, whether the car was his and he replied it was. Questioned what was the number of the car, defendant could not answer at first and then gave a number which did not correspond to that on the plate.

Witness then took him out of the car. He was holding something in his left hand and when the officer tried to get that he struggled and a car key fell to the ground.

Force had to be used to take defendant to the station and on the way he asked to be excused, saying "Give me a chance, Inspector," in Chinese. When searched, a length of tubing was found in his pocket.

Sanitary Dept. Raid Discoveries

Suprise raids carried out by the Sanitary Department on a number of houses in Kowloon City and Reclamation Street in the course of the past week brought to light no fewer than 30 unreported small-pox cases.

Relatives of the afflicted stated that they had not reported on account of the high percentage of deaths from the disease.

The health returns for the 24 hours ended midnight on Friday revealed a further 39 cases, of which 20 were from Victoria, 17 from Kowloon and one each from Shaokwan and Aberdeen.

This brings the number of cases since the beginning of the year to 1,507.

Other notifiable diseases reported during the period were four cases of cerebro-spinal meningitis and two cases each of diphtheria, enteric fever and measles.

BULLETIN ON CHINA

LATEST ISSUE NOW OFF THE PRESS

The sixth issue of the bulletin of the Canton Committee for Justice to China has been published and is ready for distribution to foreign and Chinese residents of Canton and Hong Kong who wish to secure copies to mail to friends in foreign countries. Copies may be obtained by writing to Mr. E. H. Lockwood, Y.M.C.A., Canton.

Rev. W. S. Johnston, of the English Methodist Mission, editor, deals with the question of the effect of a boycott by individuals of Japanese goods, and gives a report of conditions on the North River written by Rev. W. H. Alton of the English Methodist Mission, who lives in Sluchow.

The writer concedes that a general boycott of Japanese goods would cause suffering in Japan but he sees no other way in which the insane militarism of Japan can be checked. The suffering which would come to Japan if the boycott were effective against the country would be, however, much less than the suffering which has come to China because of the military invasion of their country.

Rev. W. H. Alton describes the effect of the first bombings by the Japanese planes in Sluchow last August when, without warning, bombs destroyed a number of dwelling houses, killed sixty people and wounded more than a hundred.

Reference is made by Rev. Johnston to the capture of Nan-king where the Japanese army, allowed to run wild, has not only looted and burned most of the city but have raped women in such a way as to put a stain on the name of the Japanese which will not be soon removed.

The writer describes himself as a friend of Japan but not an accomplice of the militarists of that country, and in the face of the facts he sees in China today it is impossible for him to remain silent.

Mr. Chen Pi-chun, a member of the Supervisory Council of the Central Government, arrived in Canton a few days ago. He is on an inspection tour.

The Overseas Ambulance Service Corps at Canton has been forbidden to function by the police for breaking the regulations in regard to the collection of money from abroad.

A ceremony to commemorate the anniversary of the Seventy-two Heroes will be held on March 29 by the Tangpu, states a message from Canton.

Bayview Murder Hearing

COURT CROWDED WITH HEARERS

As a result of the murder at Bayview on the night of March 11, when Huen Kon Hing was done to death and his brother seriously injured, three men, Lau Kong Fai, 22, described as an unemployed cook, Leung Kam Ki, 22, unemployed, and Lo Chung Hing, 19, unemployed, appeared before Mr. H.E. Butters at the Central Magistrate's Court on Saturday charged with the murder of the dead man.

The court was besieged with interested hearers and when, on the application of Det-Sgt. Bentley, who is in charge, the case was remanded for a week, disappointment could be seen on the faces of the many who had turned up to listen to the case.

The injured man is still lying in a serious condition in hospital, this being one of the main reasons for the remand.

KEROSENE IN JUNK

Lam Ching-shui, 29, steersman aboard trading junk No. T8324, appeared before Mr. Q. A. A. Macfadyen at the Kowloon Magistracy on Saturday charged with carrying 700 lbs of kerosene in the typhoon shelter at Causeway Bay on the night of March 18.

Defendant pleaded guilty on the charge but stated that he did not know the regulations of the Colony regarding anchorage for dangerous goods. This was his first trip here, he said.

The Magistrate imposed a fine of $25.

Banknotes issued by the Reserve bank of the Peking Puppet Government are not accepted as legal tender by foreign merchants and others in Tientsin, says the International News Agency. Circulation of these notes in Tientsin and Peking has, created much confusion. Outside of these two cities this paper money is totally unaccepted.

HEROIC CHINESE STUDENTS

Much has been written about the deliberate destruction by the Japanese invaders of universities and other educational institutions in China. But, up to the present, little reference has been made to the losses among the students themselves, gallant youths who have cast aside their pens and books and taken up the sword in the cause of their country in her hour of need.

No section has rallied to China's call with greater willingness and patriotism than the student classes and today there are thousands of students of varying ages and both sexes serving in the army and carrying out other essential work. That their hours of study have not lessened their ability to act when the occasion demands is shown by the fact that they have been among the foremost ranks in repelling the enemy.

Heavy has been their sacrifice, too, and a recent survey by the China Weekly Review has revealed that up to the end of last year more than 300 students had been killed and more than 5,200 wounded in action.

Unfortunately these figures do not tell the full tale of the havoc wrought among the flower of China's youth. There have been many serious battles since the period covered by this survey. The student movement in China has had a long and eventful history. The incidents with the Japanese during the past six years

JAPAN'S LOSS OF TRADE

Sunday, March 20, 1938.

Trade figures issued in Japan nowadays reveal a most troubled state of affairs and, with the passing of each month, the situation becomes more and more acute.

It is admitted that during the early period of the hostilities exports from Japan more or less held their own. The same was true in the case of other lines of Japan's internal trade which had, since 1932, shown such a steady advance.

But from about the middle of November the decline set in, and since then it has been a continuous downhill journey. Despite all that the industrialists of Japan are doing, with the authorities lending all the help possible, indications are that this downward trend, rather than being checked, will become steeper still, because the feeling against Japan, due to the ruthless war she is waging against China, is daily growing in intensity in all parts of the world.

To return, however, to the decline, which was first noticed in November. Exports have fallen, until there is an average loss of 20 per cent. in the export total, while an even more serious decrease is expected in the weeks ahead, because of factory difficulties and the absence of new inquiries.

The actual figures for the export trade may be somewhat of a surprise to those merchants who have been judging shipments by the amount of business they have done individually since December. It has to be borne in mind, however, that the figures for the first two months of the year, made known recently, refer to actual shipments and that only when the March statistics are published will the stagnation of late January and February be reflected.

This picture of the export trade falls far short of the prospects this time last year, but it is a loss which the militarists of Japan have brought upon their own country and the country has only itself to blame—for if the people had been firm enough at the outset to say "No" to all the outcries for war against China, the export trade, and consequently the finances of Japan, would not be at such a low ebb today.

The export trade, however, is not the only section of the commercial life of the country that has been affected. It is the same with the other section of trade—shipping for instance.

Business has been so bad that many of the major shipping companies of Japan are faced with ruin. The ships leave the home ports fully laden and from those parts of the world where Japanese cargo is unloaded—and these are becoming increasingly fewer—they return with empty holds, for rather than do business with the Japanese, the Chinese merchant—and a good many foreigners too—prefer to pay heavier charges to non-Japanese companies.

In the case of tramp steamers, leaders of shipping circles in Japan are urging the Government to grant a subsidy to operators, because many companies engaged in ocean shipping have been critically affected as a direct result of the Sino-Japanese hostilities.

Although coastal shipping is kept busy for certain reasons, the cargo movement in ocean services is disappointingly poor on account of the recession, and this is causing a sharp fall in the freight market.

This is not a problem that will be remedied in a week or a month. It will grow more and more acute with time, and, with the fortunes of war swinging steadily towards China, it may be readily seen what chaos and confusion is in store for Japan.

Japanese propagandists would have us believe that their people are accepting the situation with stoic calm. Our only remark is that this statement is just as convincing as any other Japanese attempt at propaganda.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

His Excellency the Governor has been pleased to appoint, provisionally, and subject to His Majesty's pleasure, the Hon. Mr. J. J. Paterson to be an Unofficial Member of the Legislative Council for a further period of four years.

aroused an ardent desire to unite the people with the Government so as to resist further invasion. The Kuomintang was deeply worried over the student question and organised them into a united body for mass training under Government supervision.

The movement was begun in 1932 and has progressed uninterruptedly ever since. The students organised themselves into a strong body of young men and women whose aim was to work for national advancement.

On the outbreak of hostilities eight months ago, the students were able to make practical use of their training and the Shanghai War Time Service Corps was created: an organisation which has carried out invaluable service.

Although it is no longer active around Shanghai, many of the students have accompanied the Chinese defenders into the interior where they continue to render valuable help.

All the beginning of the war there were more than 20,000 college students, 100,000 middle school students and 200,000 primary school students registered in institutions in Shanghai. These boys and girls formed the nucleus of the present student ranks in war service.

The story of heroic deeds constitutes an inspiring tribute to the youth of China and to the solidarity of its determination that the invader must be driven out.

Rev. Fr. Jacquinet, who directs the Nantao refugee camp, returned to Shanghai last week by the s.s. Empress of Russia.

Sir Ely Kadoorie, K.B.E., the well-known financier, was also a passenger for Shanghai by the same steamer.

The engagement is announced Mr. Reginald John Dearing, of Queen's Road, Hong Kong, and Miss Jessie Perrins, of Shorncliffe, Kent, England. Miss Perrins is due to arrive from England on the Rawalpindi on March 30.

There were many on board the Kaiser-I-Hind on Saturday, March 19, 1938 to bid goodbye and hon voyage to Dr. D.J. Valentine of the Medical Department who is proceeding home on leave. Dr. Valentine, up to the time Dr. Selwyn Clark arrived in the Colony, was acting Director of the Medical and Sanitary Services.

His Excellency the Governor will distribute the prizes at the annual sports meeting of St. Joseph's College at Caroline Hill on Friday afternoon. Sir Geoffrey will arrive at the ground at 4.30 p.m.

On Friday night, at 9.15, His Excellency the Governor and party will be present at the "Old Time Music Hall Show" at the China Fleet Club Theatre.

The many friends of Mr. E. S. Abraham, the well-known local bullion broker, will be glad to learn that he is making good progress towards recovery. Mr. Abraham has been ill for some time and is now convalescing on the Peak.

Mr. H. Mart Smith, from California, arrived in the Colony on Saturday on the s.s. Conte Biancamano. He will stay here for a few days, it is learned, and has made the Gloucester Hotel his headquarters.

All Chinese banks in Canton have suspended dealing in foreign exchange, which is taken care of entirely by the Central Bank of China, Canton Branch, in accordance with the announcement of March 14 by the Ministry of Finance.

On Saturday, His Excellency the Governor will proceed to Fanling Lodge for the week-end.

THE MALADY OF MAN

REV. H. W. BAINES' SERMON

"The malady of man" was the subject of an interesting sermon preached by the Rev. H. W. Baines at St. John's Cathedral yesterday morning.

Taking as his text, "There is nothing from without the man, that going into him can defile him; but the things which proceed out of the man are those that defile the man." (St. Mark, Chapter 7, verse 15), the preacher said:—

Our diet Sunday by Sunday this Lent is Real Religion. At least that is what we are aiming at and if this diet is found to contain a good deal of "roughage" it may be good for the system.

Real Religion led us first to that worship of the one true God in His pre-eminence and total claim upon life which is only heard and answered by continual spiritual discernment or what is called singleness of mind. God is the Union of absolute power with perfect goodness; always true; always free. The sons of His creation made for communion with Him and only as we are free can we hold communion to Him.

But that freedom for which we were made is not a shapeless license, a promiscuous ability. For the second discovery of real religion is Jesus of Nazareth as the measure of man.

MORE DIFFICULT

It is part of the mercy of God that we are protected from the intolerable spectacle of God in His perfection by the sight of Jesus His beloved Son on whom our eyes can focus.

To face the true condition of ourselves which is the third reality of our religion is more difficult. This third reality follows inevitably from the first two.

DOCTRINE OF SIN

Christianity is the Gospel of God in Jesus Christ. It is the gospel also for the freewill of men and his responsibility. With these two doctrines goes its own doctrine of sin. Sin is a word belonging to the vocabulary of religion. It is without meaning to an atheist. It is personal in me or you and it results in breaking the true relationship with God for which we were made.

Not long ago it was a pulpit saying that the present generation had a weak sense of sin. That is no longer true as it was. The bland optimism of the post-war years has withered for all except bats and drug-addicts. You recall the destruction of the Crystal Palace by fire. Principal John Whale marked a parable in that conflagration. It was as though the twentieth century were there making an ironic comment on the optimism of the nineteenth with its revolutionary idealism, its beautiful phrases about man and his achievements and its high-pitched expectations of a Utopia of universal brotherhood and prosperity just over the horizon.

It is we and our fellows, who like babies, cannot make up our minds for what purpose to use our pretty toys. Indifferently the same laboratory defeats disease and threatens civilization. In one and the same year we applaud the brave skill of a woman who flies the Atlantic alone and we recoil from the very same skill asphyxiating and disemboweling defenceless children from the air in Spain and in China.

WE ARE EVIL

What need is there to accumulate evidence? As soon as we open our eyes, our plight is clear enough. Look out or in, and evil confronts you. Not only do we yield to evil, but we are evil. Unnaturally so. The reality of our religion is not that we are suffering from an acute attack of sin just now, but that we are sinful.

To complete this third picture, the reality of Man's Malady, we need one more touch, painted by the hand of death. For death seems to be the unfair trump card always held by evil and guilt. The deep humiliation of death awaits all our achievements.

Real Religion recalls us to the One True God, to Jesus as the Measure of Man and now to the truth about ourselves which is that whatever may be set in the scales on the other side and whatever our inextinguishable hope in Jesus, we are now suffering from the Malady of sinfulness. We are of a fallen race, we do ourselves sin and corrupt our communion with God and man and we do so unwittingly.

Sin is ours, and guilt is ours before God, and we are related to death, as brothers but not always as friends.

Blemishes
Easy Way

Nothing can be more distracting to a woman than ugly pimples, burning irritations or patches of blackheads or enlarged pores on the face or neck. Some resort to heavy powdering in an effort to hide them; whilst others cause the skin to become muddy-looking, coarse and blemished by using the wrong treatment.

To make your skin clear and healthy, to cleanse clogged facial pores, remove blackheads and pimples and to make your complexion clearer and smoother, use Cuticura.

Cleanse the skin with Cuticura Soap twice a day. Its luxuriant and mildly antiseptic lather is soothing and softening; washes away pore-dirt which causes blackheads, enlarged pores and ugly complexion defects.

To rid the skin of pimples, skin outbreaks, rashes or irritations use Cuticura Ointment direct on the affected part before washing with the soap. Its antiseptic action kills germs, soothes and heals and quickly clears the skin.

ST. PATRICK'S BALL

(BY PATRICIA)

The St. Patrick's Ball on Friday night was quite one of the most enjoyable dances of the season. The Peninsula Hotel was artistically decorated in green and yellow and The Blarney Castle was set at the far end of the Rose Room. Mrs. Jordan and Miss Henderson, dressed as two charming little colleens, assisted every one in their efforts to kiss the famous Blarney Stone. His Excellency the Governor and Mrs. Pope were two of the first people to receive a signed certificate for having accomplished the difficult feat.

I noticed Mrs. Hallows wearing a most attractive green dress, while her daughter looked slim and lovely in black.

Mr. and Mrs. Turner had quite a large party—her dress being black. Mrs. Hughes also favoured black with a spray of green carnations—real ones—believe it or not.

Mrs. Black wore a lovely pink lace dress and Mrs. Williamson was in yellow lace.

Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Potter were greatly missed. I understand Mr. Potter has a poisoned hand and is unable to go anywhere at present; but his daughter Patricia seemed to be enjoying herself, she wore a most becoming taffeta dress.

Judy Smith was in white shark skin with a little tailored coat to match. Margaret Middleton-Smith looked lovely in red taffeta.

Mrs. Fawn wore black velvet; she must be pleased to have her arm out of a sling again.

Miss Hirst also wore black. Pam Scott Harston looked really lovely in a white lame dress. Betty Fair wore black while her sister Beryl favoured green. Miss Joan Smalley was also in green, and Mrs. Prior wore a dress of old rose.

I am sure everyone was pleased to see Anne Dowbiggin about again after her nasty fall at Fanning. Mary Ross wore white with green trimmings.

Mrs. Dicken looked regal in white, with the most wonderful green earrings I have ever seen.

Mrs. MacGregor looked lovely as ever in black velvet with ermine trimmings.

Mrs. Potts was another who favoured green; her husband Alec was in very good form as usual, as also was Commander Hopper.

Sir Atholl and Lady MacGregor seemed to be enjoying themselves immensely. Lady MacGregor was in a glorious shade of pink. Mrs. Shields looked beautiful also in pink.

Mr. and Mrs. Morse had quite one of the largest parties, and she wore a becoming brown dress.

Mrs. Walton and Jack Grenham must be congratulated on their delightful rendering of the reels; it really was a treat to watch them.

Mrs. Taggart wore green brocade, and Mrs. Dodwell, a lovely patterned velvet.

The Kotewall sisters looked slim and attractive in lovely white dresses.

Mrs. Eu Tong Sen wore a beautiful flowered silk. Mrs. Selwyn Clarke, who has only just arrived from England, wore a white dress.

Mrs. Armstrong was in white—very obviously just returned from England. She was chaperoning Miss Valerie Kane, who, we understand, is enjoying her stay here immensely.

Before concluding, I would like to say that on all sides I heard nothing but praise of the excellent organization and catering.

started with
SANATOGEN

Nervousness, fatigue, forgetfulness and many other symptoms often hamper the full enjoyment of life. You can become fit and healthy again with a course of Sanatogen.

Sanatogen contains just those elements which give new health and energy to the run-down organism in a very digestible form. It strengthens the nerves, renews the red blood cells and thus gives new strength and stamina to the whole system.

Prof. Tobold, a well-known European authority, wrote:

"Those who are suffering from nervous weakness will soon regain their former strength and joy of life."

Try Sanatogen at once. Buy it to-day and see how quickly Health and Vitality return.

'GRAND OLD MAN' OF MEDICINE

Sir James Crichton-Browne, bearer of a name that he had made one of the best known in Britain, who recently died at Dumfries at the age of 97, brought a fresh point of view to the consideration of many subjects, and some of his typical remarks were as follows:

Whisky and champagne cause more trouble to motor drivers than beer.

Skilled muscular discipline in the form of physical training is to the limbs what manure is to the hands and nails.

STRICT TENNIS
OFFICIALS

Paris, March 18.

A proposal to allow tennis tournaments open to amateurs and professionals was rejected by a large majority today at a meeting of the International Lawn Tennis Federation.

Supporters of the proposal were the United States, Australia, Japan, India and Brazil.

The Indian proposal for an international mixed doubles competition was not seconded.

South Africa proposed to institute a second base-line, between which and the normal base-line the server is not restricted. The idea behind the proposal was to eliminate footfaults. It gained 90 votes as against 81, but the proposal failed as it lacked a two-thirds majority.

THE SERVICE

With regard to service, the Federation decided that "if the ball thrown in the air for service touches the ground before being hit by the racket it shall count as a fault."

China, Lithuania and Turkey were elected members of the Federation.—(Reuter)

Regarding the proposal to allow tournaments open to both amateur and professionals, the American L.T.A. at its annual meeting at Miami, Florida, recently, while refusing to approve a motion for the holding of such tournaments allowed it to be understood that it did not necessarily demand rigid prohibition. The American L.T.A. decided to "ask the International Federation to eliminate its present rule prohibiting the conducting of open tournaments for amateurs and professionals."

COLONY'S MOCK WAR
COVER OF DARKNESS

With the approach of darkness the enemy's activity increased but, although an enemy cruiser and destroyer were observed to anchor to the northwest of Lamma Island, and feint attacks were made by destroyers at Stanley, Deepwater, Big Wave, and Repulse Bays, no serious attempt was made until 2.25 a.m. on Sunday, when launches carrying Pacific troops were seen in the Lamma Channel making for Aberdeen.

The launches, however, changed their course and at about 3.15 a.m. on Sunday succeeded in disembarking their parties in Tai Ho Wan Bay.

Our defences in that area were overwhelmed and the enemy succeeded in advancing as far as Mt. Kellett where a counter-attack by our troops restored the situation with heavy losses to the enemy.

Almost simultaneously a feint attack was made in Stanley Bay. The enemy launches, illuminated by our beach searchlights, were forced to retreat, leaving behind them in the darkness a number of sampans full of troops.

DEFENDERS DECEIVED

Deceived by the withdrawal of the launches, the defenders' vigilance seems to have slackened for the enemy persevered with their attack and landed approximately half a battalion completely undetected on the east side of Stanley Bay.

Thence this enterprising force advanced rapidly inland and by 6 a.m. on Sunday had captured Tyam Bunghow.

On the mainland the situation had stabilised itself soon after midnight on Saturday, the enemy being in touch with the Hong Kong Infantry Brigade along the front of the main defensive position.

WITHERING FIRE

At dawn on Sunday the enemy landed in Port Shelter and penetrated some distance inland before the attack withered away under the fire of the defence. Later a powerful counter-attack was made on these forces which resulted in completely overwhelming such elements as had survived the original attack.

It is probable that the object of this attack was to divert attention from the left flank, where, shortly after dawn, a surprise attack was launched which succeeded in overrunning some of our foremost defended localities before finally being brought to a standstill.

Small parties of the enemy continue to show themselves along the centre front of our defensive position on the mainland and further attacks are to be expected.

ATTACK IMPENDING

Military Headquarters consider it unlikely that the enemy will make any more attempts to effect further landings until he has committed his reserve forces which are reported to be moving southwards down the Fanling Road.

It is thought that an attack may develop against our position during the next few hours.

The Military Commander-in-Chief is confident, however, of being able to repulse any attack that can be launched by such Pacific troops as are known already to have invaded the New Territories.

EASTERN DRAW WITH POLICE

Playing in the rain yesterday the Eastern and Police shared the points in their first Division encounter at Happy Valley, scoring three goals each.

In the first half the Police had the better of the play.

Moss opened the score with a fine pile-driver which gave Sammy Tsang no chance. Hau Ching-to replied for Eastern and Lee Tien-sun put them in the lead, a minute after.

The Police then took up the offensive again but there was no further score in the first half.

After the interval Howlett, at centre, made a fine solo run to net the equaliser. Hau Ching-to put the Eastern in the lead again with one of his fine drives and Gough then put the Police on equal terms and the score remained at three goals all till the whistle went.

Scotland a lead of 18-13 with a truly magnificent kick. A third penalty goal was awarded almost immediately afterwards, and Parker made no mistake from long range.

SCOTLAND WINS OUT

With the game still anybody's, Shaw clinched the issue for Scotland when he broke through from a loose scrum and grounded close to the corner flag. Crawford's kick at goal failed, and the final whistle sounded almost immediately after, giving Scotland a well-earned triumph by 21 points to 16.—(Reuter).

The teams were:—
ENGLAND: G. W. Parker (Blackheath); E. J. Unwin (Army, Rosslyn Park); Peter Crammer (Mosley); P. L. Candler (St. Bart's Hospital); H. S. Sever (Sale); F. J. Reynolds (Army, O. Cranleighs); J. L. Giles (Coventry); R. J. Longland (Northampton); H. D. Toft (Waterloo); E. F. Wheatley (Coventry); R. M. Marshall (Oxford Univ.); A. Brown (Exeter); D. L. K. Milman (Bedford); W. H. Weston (Northampton).

SCOTLAND: G. Roberts (Watsonians); J. Renwick (London Scottish); R. C. S. Dick (Guy's Hospital); D. J. Macrae (St. Andrew's University); and J. G. S. Forrest (Cambridge University); R. W. Shaw (Glasgow High School F.P. (captain); and T. F. Dorward (Gala); Blackadder (West of Scotland); J. D. H. Hastie (Melrose); W. M. Inglis (Royal Engineers); G. B. Horsburgh (London Scottish); A. Roy (Waterloo); W. B. Young (Cambridge University); P. L. Duff (Glasgow Academicals); and W. H. Crawford (Services).—(Reuter).

SCOTLAND WINS CUP
FROM ENGLANDFine Finish To International
Rugger Match

London, March 19.

A crowd of 70,000 saw Scotland win the Calcutta Cup and International Rugby Championship today at Twickenham when they beat England by two penalty goals and five tries (21 points) to a dropped goal, three penalty goals and a try (16 points) after leading at the interval by 12 points to 9.

The last occasion Scotland won at Twickenham was in 1929, when the score was 12-6.

A capacity crowd, including Their Majesties the King and Queen, were present for the match, which opened in glorious sunshine, although conditions for play were by no means ideal, it being extremely hot after the first 15 minutes.

Dashing threequarter movements, featured a magnificent first half, the conclusion of which saw Scotland leading England by four tries (12 points) to two penalty goals and a try (9 points) after one of the most thrilling halves seen in International Rugby for several seasons.

BRILLIANT HANDLING

Splendid backing up by Scotland's forwards in the loose, brilliant handling among the backs and magnificent open movements down the centre being the highlights of the first half.

Both teams commenced confidently and after both goal lines had narrowly escaped, a magnificent breakaway by Shaw, who, in attempting to evade Parker, dropped the ball, saw the Scots open the scoring when Renwick, backing up brilliantly, carried the ball over the England line near the corner flag. Crawford's effort to convert the try, however, failed.

From the drop-in England carried play into the Scottish half, where Scotland were penalised for a scrum infringement just outside their 25, and Parker levelled the scores with a penalty goal.

THREE PROMINENT

From the drop-in by Shaw, Scotland's forwards were featured in a thrilling rush, Crawford reaching the England 25-yard line, only for Reynolds to smother the movement by cleverly dropping on the ball.

Scotland's threequarters were very much in the picture now and with Shaw, McCrae and Dick all handling splendidly things were by no means rosy for England. Another scrum infringement by Scotland, however, saw Parker land another brilliant penalty goal.

England pressed right after the drop-in, but Crammer dropped the ball after a fine sprint to within 10 yards of the Scottish goal-line.

RENEWED THROUGH

Scotland again levelled the points when Renwick went over for his second try following a brilliant
